

'Army's' Annual Drive

Seeks $2500 For Year's Expenses — Fine Work By Major and Mrs. Thompson

It was announced today by Arthur F. Lamb, chairman of the Salvation Army Advisory Board, that the local Salvation Army Corps would seek the sum of $2500 to maintain its work during the coming year.

An impressive report was released today by Major and Mrs. A. Thompson, officers in charge of the local activities, indicating that the organization has maintained its high standard of charitable and evangelistic work during the past year.

It is to be noted that 101 families received care during the past year, 550 garments were distributed, as well as 95 pairs of shoes. It was also revealed that grocery orders totaling $264.09 had been distributed to needy families.

Major Thompson in stressing the importance of his annual report revealed that a total of 321 Evangelistic services were conducted with a total attendance of 9685. In addition to this there were 152 street services during the 12-month period.

A portion of Major Thompson's time each day is given to visitations as well as the sick and needy. The records show 195 hours spent in this manner.

Mr. A. Thompson has charge of the women's activities and reports that 86 women's meetings were held, with an attendance of 1473 during the year. This group studies home economics and general home planning and improvement.

The Salvation Army also conducted its special activities during the year with 290 Christmas dinners supplied. Other meals to the number of 227 were given to transient men and women.

An interesting sidelight in connection with the released report indicates that 11 services were held at the Thomaston State Prison.

The campaign will be officially launched next Monday, with a quota of $2500. Local citizens are urged to send their checks to Lendon C. Jackson, Jr., at the Knox County Trust Company, who is serving as treasurer. The local Salvation Army is entirely dependent on this annual campaign to secure its revenue for the year and the sponsoring committee urges all local persons to contribute as generously as possible.

This committee has very carefully gone over the budget of the organization which has been brought down to a minimum and it is of great importance that the entire quota be subscribed within the next two weeks. Members of the local Advisory Board who work in co-operation with Major and Mrs. A. Thompson are: Arthur F. Lamb, treasurer; Jesse E. Bradstreet, chairman; Lendon C. Jackson, Jr.,

Union Restrictions

And Their Effect Upon Gloucester Landings—Men Happy Here

Front page headlines in a Gloucester Mass., newspaper the past week bemoans the loss of 56 percent of the fish landings in the port the past four months. The 56 percent refers to total landings. The paper goes on to point out that redfish landings were down 74 percent for the same period.

Union imposed restrictions which held boats down to 5000 pounds per crew member per trip were mentioned as one of the difficulties encountered. The restriction, in effect since Feb. 6, have swelled the rolls of unemployment compensation claimants to the Massachusetts Employment Service by several hundred fish workers who are out of employment because of the slack landings. At the peak of the unemployment, the State was paying $45,000 weekly to the idle workers, the lowest weekly figure to date being $32,000 with 1300 of the total unemployed of 1776 being seafood workers.

Total redfish landings in the port for the four months dropped to 3,234,000 pounds, barely more than the total landings of a one month period in the port for Rockland.

Similar restrictions were imposed in a Rockland plant for a few days last winter until the freezer stock could be moved. All plants have been accepting full fares from all boats landing at Rockland.

Union attempts to organize the dragger crews and dock workers were opposed last winter by the men themselves who stated, as the result of a meeting in the Community Building, that their relations with the dragger owners and plant owners were satisfactory and that they did not care to enter a union.

Ask Three Changes

City Council Considering Petitions For Altering Zone Laws

Three petitions were received by the City Council Monday night in which citizens sought changes in the zoning laws of the city.

Residents of the area in and around Lindsey Grove and Union streets sought to have a buffer zone established between the present Zone A, which reaches to the Western line of Union street, and the commercial Zone C which comes to the eastern side of the same street. They proposed an area to be designated as residential Zone B, in between the two.

The area on the corners of the junction of Birch and Maverick streets would be declared in Neighborhood Commercial Zone D should the petitions of residents in that area be granted.

A third area near Pleasant Gardens on New County Road would also become neighborhood commercial should petitions from residents of that area be granted.

The Council took all three petitions under their consideration.

A Red Cross Call

There is urgent need for cutters and sewers to make layettes for many local cases. The material is on hand. Yarn has been received for infants jackets, caps, booties, and mittens. Yarn for men's stockings for the U. S. Armed Forces. Cutters and workers are needed desperately for work on women's and children's dresses for foreign relief. The production room is open Tuesday and Thursday afternoons. Please help us!

Isaac L. Hammond, Executive Secretary.

CRIEHAVEN BREAKWATER

Representative Margaret C. Smith has asked the House Public Works Committee for a review of Criehaven Harbor, with a view to extending the breakwater. Mrs. Smith has introduced a bill for the extension. Under the Reorganization Act of last session, the committee may ask reviews and surveys of projects already authorized by law by the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors.

The Public Library will be closed Memorial Day.

TWILIGHT LEAGUE IS READY

And Will Have Six Teams This Season—First Games June 8

At a meeting in the Camden Fire Station plans were laid for the resumption of the old stand-by, the Knox County Twilight League, this season.

Ray Foley of the Maine State Police will serve again as president of the League and "Doug" Heald of Camden as secretary.

President Foley presided at the meeting which was attended by representatives from six Knox County towns, Camden, Rockland, Thomaston, St. George, who comprised the League last season, and two newcomers, Rockport and Warren, both members of the League in previous seasons, who are returning for another fling. Those attending were: Eddy and Heald, Camden; Clark and Starr, Thomaston; Wincapaw, Rockland; Wiley and Wilson, St. George; Graftam and A-horn, Rockport; and Durrell and Perkins, Warren.

The meeting ran fairly smoothly, the main discussion seeming to be in regard to player eligibility. This problem was finally ironed out, whether to everyone's satisfaction is perhaps questionable, but it adhered to by all teams. It is believed a better League will result. Concessions were made to Warren and Rockland whereby the former will be allowed to use three players from Waldoboro, outside of Knox County contrary to League by-laws, and the latter to use three members of the local Coast Guard Base. The loyal Twilight League fans are assured of plenty of good baseball this summer anyway with six teams vying to start away on a 30-game schedule Sunday, June 8. For the benefit of the ball players, as well as the many interested fans, the following by-laws were adopted for the League for the 1947 season.

By-laws

1. Roster of 21 men may be carried until July 15, and not over 15 men after July 15. Roster to be submitted before start of League season and roster of 15 men to be submitted before July 15.

2. Players eligible to participate in League games, to be year round residents of Knox County, and any questionable players eligibility to be decided by President and Board of Directors. No names to be added to rosters after July 15, except on approval of President and Board of Directors.

3. New players names to be submitted to Board of Directors and said player shall be eligible to play within one week from date name is submitted to Board of Directors, providing Board approves of said player.

4. All players shall be without salary or subsidized in any way.

5. Each team to submit in writing umpires to be used and same to be satisfactory to majority of teams in League. Umpires to be paid $5 at plate and $2 on bases. Home umpire to umpire on bases and visiting umpire behind the plate.

6. Umpires to work and rule on games in accordance with the rules of the national association of the game.

7. The weather conditions, such as showers, fog, etc., left to the discretion of the umpires and managers of the teams playing. No team to be forced to play to please the whim of some few players of fans.

8. The visiting team is to be on the field at 6 p. m., ready to play, unless a suitable reason is given for non-arrival, otherwise game will be forfeited by decision of umpires. The starting time after Aug. 1, will be 5:45 p. m., and Sunday starting time will be 2 p. m.

9. Every player to be in uniform when playing. No player allowed to play in civilian clothes.

10. Each team must use a regulation national baseball subject at all times to the decision of the umpire in charge.

11. All postponed games to be played at earliest possible convenience and before final decision of the winner of the pennant.

12. A protesting a game the manager of the team protesting must notify the umpire in charge of the game, also present protest to President or Secretary of League in writing within 24 hours after game is played. The protest then to be taken before the Directors for final decision.

13. A straight season of 30 games will be played starting Sunday, June 8, and ending Aug. 28. Each team to play six games with every other team in League, three at home and three away.

14. All games in League will be on home and home basis with each team taking its own gate receipts, paying its own expenses, etc. Home team to pay the umpires fees.

15. Players from any other League are automatically barred from Twilight League competition.

16. All Star team to be picked by President, Board of Directors, and Managers from five runner-up teams to play the winning team at the conclusion of the schedule. Game to be played on Sunday, Aug. 31.

D. A. Heald, Secretary.

To Lay Cornerstone

Exercises On Elm Street When Memorial Day Parade Returns

The Memorial Day parade Friday afternoon will disband on and near Elm street, where brief exercises attending the laying of the Farnsworth Memorial cornerstone will be held.

The box containing articles listed in Tuesday's issue will be deposited by Ralph Lowell, president of the Boston Safe Deposit and Trust Company, whose remarks will be very brief so as not to delay the regular Memorial Day proceedings. President Lowell, one of Boston's best known financiers, has just been elected president of the Associated Harvard Clubs.

Robert P. Bellows of Boston who has been actively identified with the progress of the memorial, is chairman (unofficially, he says) of the committee of arrangements.

Two silver trowels will be used in the cornerstone ceremony, one to be presented to President Lowell; the other to Herman W. Crowell, the efficient superintendent of construction.

A shore dinner is in the making for the luncheon at the Thorndike Hotel Friday noon. The invited guests are:

On Serious Charge

Brockton Man Held In Connection With Vinalhaven Assault

Richard Franklin Peck of Brockton, Mass., is being held in Knox County Jail for the Grand Jury of the November term of Superior Court. He is charged with assault with intent to rape upon the person of Mrs. Maxine E. Jameson of Vinalhaven. The attack is alleged to have taken place Wednesday night near the Vinalhaven business section.

Appearing in court Thursday morning, Mrs. Jameson showed the effects of a terrific beating at the hands of her assailant, with severe bruises about the face and head and bruised knees and ankles where she claimed he had repeatedly kicked her.

Chief of Police Elmer Lindsey of Vinalhaven, who made the arrest, stated that the man was not a resident of the island, having, to the best of his knowledge come to the island only a few hours before the alleged attack took place.

Judge Dwinall found probable cause and ordered Peck held in $2000 bail. Unable to furnish the bail, he was committed to await Grand Jury action.

THE BLACK CAT

By The Roving Reporter

Over in Biddeford, according to the Journal, they have a decided curiosity in the form of a plant which has grown through a cemented cellar wall. Now if that plant were just an ordinary weed I could easily understand the phenomenon, for weeds will grow anywhere.

Fruit lovers are eating grapes which came all the way from Argentina. Very sweet. And they are also swapping their cash for some nice looking Bing cherries.

Some baseball fan, Warren or otherwise, might like the group picture of the famous Warren team of 1895, on which Sockalexis, Powers and Curley played. The other members of the team were Webster, Popkay, Morse, Jason (of Rockland), Black, Burton, Stout and Nason. "Eddie" Teague, now a hotel proprietor in California, was manager of the famous team. I hear from him occasionally, but not often enough.

The Glen Cove skyline is being altered by the demolishing of the old R.T. & C. boiler house, sharing the fate of which will be the major portions of other brick and concrete additions to the original plant. Only the needful part of the central building will be used. The lofty chimney, tower and catwalk have long been objects of the past.

Newspapers are nowadays not printed on "rag paper" as was the custom for so many years. This was brought to mind this week when rag paper was brought into play for the purpose of printing the Farnsworth Memorial copy of The Courier-Gazette. The files of this paper for 1846 and 1946 show a comparison altogether in favor of the former. The paper a century old, is still in good condition. The present issues show deterioration after a few years.

One year ago: Rev. Fr. James F. Savage was the Memorial Day speaker.—The Aluminum Boat Company leased the Waldoboro Shipyard.—The Municipal Board of Appeals organized with David L. McCarty as chairman and Allan F. McAlary as secretary.—The North Lube Manufacturing Company on Tilton Wharf began packing sardines.—Deaths: Brookline, Mass., George K. Harrington, formerly of Rockland, 78; Bangor, Mrs. Anne Leimond of South Hope, 46; Camden, Miss Helen Roberta Lowell of Rockport, 24.

YOUR FAVORITE POEM

If I had my life to live again I would have made a rule to read some poetry and listen to some music at least once a week. The loss of these tastes is a loss of happiness.—Charles Darwin.

OBSERVATIONAL

If I could grow as good as I desire to be, I would not cry. My lack of power in Heaven's cause, for I should have no further flaws. But yet, methinks, if such could be, I might show less of charity in dealing with another's sin. Through lack of knowledge from within.

For I would seem that God above Would have me show His grace and love.

To those I meet upon life's way Who, like myself, have gone astray.

Book Review

"Maine Holiday." Author, Pained J. Flagg. Published by Reinhold Publishing Corporation, New York.

In every way this book is most artistically put together, with beautiful pictures, printed on the best of stock. The stories which meet the need of the lovely and perfect illustrations depict Maine in full summer glory. The artist did a fine thing to attract the out of State persons, as well as those who live in Maine and love every inch of her variety of charming scenery.

The author, Dr. Flagg, is a doctor of note and takes this way to rest from his heavy duties in the practice of his heavy duties as a specialist.

It is little wonder that Maine has been named "Vacationland." The illustrations are entrancing; each picture stands out as a restful perfect place for rest and delight. Dr. Flagg owns a camp for boys at Vinalhaven.

The lift that the cool air and tonic one gets away from the heat of city life is found at its best near the coast of Maine, where beauty is ever changing into new beauty. The book has only 32 pages, but they are far better with the artistic story for each illustration than many times that amount of reading. One wishes to pause and study the delightful views given.

The Boy Scouts

Troop 202, Boy Scouts will meet on the steps of Pratt Memorial Methodist Church at 6 p. m., sharp, Monday night and will leave for Chickawankie Lake for a swim and supper hike weather permitting. If rainy, a regular meeting will be held at 7 p. m., in the church vestry.

An urgent plea goes out to anyone who can supply bedding, eating utensils or clothing to assist the fire victims, the Myers family of Upper Park street. These unfortunate people lost all their household belongings in the disastrous fire and the Scouts intend to do their bit to alleviate suffering. Anyone having anything to offer should call 239-R and a uniformed Scout will call for it.

ROCKLAND BOY HONORED

We knew all along that the former Rockland boy, Albert K. Gardner, would make good as Commissioner of Agriculture, and events have thoroughly justified his re-appointment to that office. He has now been selected as one of the 20 State commissioners to represent the National Association on commodity committees. The appointment was by Association President W. Kerr Scott, North Carolina agriculture commissioner. Gardner's new duties will require him to "collaborate and assist" the Research and Marketing Administration of the federal department in the development of the national potato marketing program.

WAS PURGED BY TRUMAN

Readers will remember the primary election in the Fifth Missouri District when President Truman publicly urged the defeat of Roger C. Slaughter, because of their differences over domestic policies. The apparent defeat of Slaughter was hailed as a great administration triumph, but it was to the accompaniment of sweeping changes that it had been accomplished by fraud. As a matter of fact Enos Astell (President Truman's protegee) was defeated in the Congressional election which followed, but Slaughter's friends continued to force the matter with the result that the grand jury has indicted 78 persons for vote frauds, and made a final report asking for a complete recount of all ballots which were cast in the Congressional primary race.

ISN'T THERE A LIMIT?

This business of striking and picketing seems to be carried to a nauseating extent in some cases. For instance that affair in Cleveland this week when an Episcopal rector and his two brothers were threatened by pickets in a strike-bound cemetery while digging a grave for the funeral of their mother.

STYLE IN SCARECROWS

With white oak leaves of sufficient emergence to chronicle the traditional time for corn planting, a certain artificial increase in the agricultural population is noted now in marked-out fields that have golden kernels piled at idiosyncratic intersections. For on many farms the scarecrow, that stiff-jointed guardian of future green sprouts, has assumed his seasonal duties—his first appearance undergoing prompt criticism, ranging from murmured doubt to raucous disbelief, from some united assembly of crows gathered in near-by elms. Scarecrow styles this year are said to exhibit pleasant variance from those displayed in cornfields during war years of clothing shortages. Then many a scarecrow was so raggedly and almost indecently clad as to prove entirely unconvincing to clever crows who knew that the scarecrow's owner had paid off the mortgage on his 400-acre farm and at least possessed a whole pair of overalls, however well patched. Now with a prevalence of sport coats and slacks, scarecrows of 1947 are reported to be so overappareled as to bear little likeness to any horny-handed hoe swinger, or even to an approximation of that almost extinct biped, the hired man. Because of a crow's perfect eyesight and impeccable I. Q., probably the only complete solution is a boy and a shotgun—with the reservation that any crow unable to recognize a shotgun half a mile away is rather certain to be deprived of his union card by the American Federation of Crows. —Herald Tribune

Mower Demonstration

Farmers Will See Horse Drawn and Tractors At Appleton Monday

Next Monday at 2 p. m., a mowing machine demonstration will be held at the farm of Floyd Gushue's in Appleton. Both horse-drawn and tractor mowers will be used in the demonstration.

With the coming of the haying season, many farmers will soon have to start getting their machines repaired and corrected for cutting hay. Many common troubles experienced in previous years, such as, grass choking on the cutter bar, uneven cutting, heating of the pitman and crankshaft boxes, lost motion, side draft, and excessive draft, can be corrected in a short time. The purpose of this demonstration is to show what causes these common troubles, and how to prevent them. Many hours of labor can be saved at haying time if the mowing machine is in proper condition.

Edward Foss, Extension agricultural engineer, will be on hand to conduct the demonstration and discuss whatever troubles you may have.

Community committeemen in connection with the Knox and Lincoln County ACP program have been informed by the State Office at Orono that no more orders for time and super will be accepted. It is expected that all orders now in the office will be filled. The county office at Rockland will keep community committeemen informed of any changes in the program. Farmers who have taken part in the program will also be notified regarding the change in plans.

The League Opener

Rockland Rockets vs. Winslow Taconnets Sunday—
Rockland Band and Crack Flyer

The fast Taconnets of Winslow will be the opposition of the Rockland Rockets, Sunday, in the opening of the League season which promises to give fans some of the fastest ball to be seen in the State this Summer.

The Arbitration Board will have three members, Jack Moran, representing Bangor and Brewer, Eddie Roundy, Winslow and Augusta, "Jimmy" Connellan Belfast and Rockland. They will handle all protests.

It was intended to use local talent in the Rockets' lineup with some out of town boys who will also be seen in the Two-League this season, but owing to a Two-League ruling of last week which bars any player from the League if they play with the Rockets, the management has been forced to bring in some outside players in order to compete with the rest of the teams in this League.

The Rockets' management had no intention of interfering with the Twilight League. It was their intention to play independent ball, with the fastest teams available, Sundays and holidays, with an all-star aggregation as was seen several years back when the Rockland Collegians were taking on all comers. Then a franchise was offered in the Pine State League, and accepted, as this was to be just Sundays and holidays. This fact is mentioned so fans will understand why stars of the neighboring towns, and the few Pirates who were asked, will not be seen with the Rockets.

Throwing out the first ball, will be by the editor of The Courier-Gazette.

Fans will want to come early to see the gas model plane exhibition. Game time will be at 3 p. m., sharp. Help the Rockets give you the brand of baseball you have been waiting so long to see. Youngsters up to High School age admitted free.

"Chummy" Gray, Coach.

The Thomaston Lions won over the Camden Lions in Thomaston Tuesday night by 80 runs. Elliott of Thomaston and Harold Robinson of the Camden Lions were tied for high with 478. Captain Marks had high single 111. George Bonvin and Charles Lawry rolled anchor for their respective teams. Always a close match when they meet it was a matter of 10 pins, Lawry winning. The Thomaston Lions have won eight of their 9 games rolled this year.

Paul's Team, Without a Defeat, May Be On Way
To Pennant

Since last Friday's writeup some great games have been played and upsets noted. Friday night Paul's had the first shut-out of the season when they played the Shipyard. The score and game was very close, 3-0, and both teams played a game that was really interesting.

Last Sunday saw Central Maine come forth with its first victory of the season when they beat Camden in the first game, 6-4. They dropped the second game to Camden by a score of 9-3.

Monday Rockcliff & Witham beat the Fisheries by a score of 23-11. Tuesday night Camden dropped to Paul's by a score of 15-7, leaving Paul's still on top of the standing.

Wednesday night's game was perhaps the biggest upset of the season when Rockcliff & Witham beat Al's Clippers by a score of 13-4. Rockcliff & Witham played great ball and Sullivan's shoe-string catch of Thomas' line drive in left field, was an outstanding play.

Present standings are:
W L PC
Paul's, 5 0 1.000
Al's, 3 1 .750
Perry's, 1 1 .500
Rockcliff & Witham, 2 1 .666

Rockland High Found "Easy
Picking" at Thomaston—
Camden Less Fortunate

Rockland 23, Thomaston 12
Taking advantage of the rare Spring sunshine, the Rockland diameters combined some hits with a flock of Thomaston errors to run away with the longest game of the season. When the shadows lengthened after four hours of play, the final score was Rockland 23 Thomaston 12. The game produced some good hits by both teams, three-baggers by Watts, Hall and Smith of Thomaston. A pair of doubles by McLeilan and two-baggers by Kelsey and Pease. Teel gave a remarkable exhibition of fielding.

If the game did not produce a lot of good baseball it was an exhibit on of good, clean sportsmanship with every member of both squads getting a chance in the field and at bat.

Veterans' Corner

By George L. Beach, Jr., Officer-in-Charge, Veterans' Administration Contact Office, Community Building, Rockland, Maine.

Reports received from Contact Offices of the Veterans Administration in Maine show a considerable increase in interest among veterans concerning the benefits available in National Service Life Insurance by addition of the total disability income provision to their policies. By adding this total disability income benefit to their insurance many veterans are providing the protection against the possibility of loss of earnings due to disabilities.

Benefits in the amount of $5 monthly for each $1000 of insurance may be received if the insured should become totally disabled, and if the disability continues six months or more. Payments begin with the seventh month of total disability and continue as long as the insured remains totally disabled. Such payments do not reduce the benefits of the insurance policy.

This provision may be secured by the payment of a small extra premium charge and by written application and satisfactory proof of good health. The necessary forms and information may be received at any office of the Veterans Administration.

In answer to many inquiries concerning the opportunity for the reinstatement of insurance lapsed after discharge, veterans may put back in force their Term insurance (the plan first issued in service) at any time up to eight years from the date it was first taken out. All the premiums which have been due and unpaid need not be repaid in order to reinstate; only two monthly premiums are paid, and only for as much insurance as the veteran desires to retain.

Furthermore, the requirements as to health are very liberal. Up to and including Aug. 1, 1947, reinstatement may be usually made without a physical examination, the statement of the insured that his health is as good as it was on the due date of the first unpaid premium is sufficient in most cases.

The insurance of veterans is now well suited for their peacetime needs. Lump sum payment to a beneficiary may be made upon selection of the insured, when changing from Term insurance to a long-range permanent plan, he may select among six plans, including three plans of Endowment; any person may be named as beneficiary; and a veteran who had no insurance in service, or less than $10,000, may now apply for new insurance of any of the six permanent plans or for five-year Level Term Insurance.

Since the Federal Government pays for all expenses in connection with the administration of veterans' insurance, the opportunity to receive low-cost family protection and income for retirement is available by this most economical plan of insurance.

Belfast 12, Pirates 9

At Belfast Sunday, going into the seventh inning trailing 10 to 9 the Pirates found their batting eyes. McLellan batted out a home run and triple and Barlow whacked a homer, each hit coming with a runner aboard. Belfast had to call its pitching ace, Stolt, to retire the Pirates. Not only did Rockland lose the game, but Jones, classy center-fielder, fractured a small bone in his leg and Josephs sprained an ankle.

After pitching two hit, two run ball for four innings, Schaffer was wild in the fifth walking three and allowing five hits, need for seven runs. Chisholm relieved and held the Merchants five hits and three runs for the rest of the game. Raynie Ellis' catch of Doak's line drive was the feature play of the game.

Heard "Vox Pop"

Mrs. Cuddy Gets Mental Picture Of Old Town Where She Resided

New Haven, Conn., May 23.

Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—

There was no missing "Vox Pop" Tuesday, April 29, after a friend called my attention to the fact that a group of Waldoboro people were chosen to be guests on that program, and that George H. Coombs was to be guest of honor.

I hardly dared to breathe for fear of missing something as their voices came in on the radio and I got a mental picture of the old town as I knew it nearly 50 years ago. It was in the early years of Dr. Coombs' Waldoboro practice that I made frequent visits to his homes of my grandfather, Lambert, and my aunt, Mrs. Charles Egle. It was she who, I remember, called in Dr. Coombs to administer to my ills in the early years of his Waldoboro practice.

Among familiar names of close neighbors and friends of my grandfather, whom I remember most clearly was the Welt family.

As is natural after being away from home for nearly half a century, the real value of what I left behind, the real value of what I left behind.

History's pages are full of stories of great men and their achievements, but of equal fame is the country doctor whose story is hardly known to the present generation.

After hearing the program waited anxiously for the account of my Maine boyhood on an account of the interview that I would not have had were it not for The Courier-Gazette.

Mrs. O. G. Cuddy.

Taxpayers Are Sore
Matineus, May 25, Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—

The assessors and taxpayers of Matineus are pretty sore over the charge by the State Audit Department for last years audit of the Plantation books.

The auditor charged the Plantation for his travel expenses from Winslow to Rockland, sea plane expenses from Rockland to the island and return, mileage on his car, hotel expenses, meals, two and a half days work on the audit plus a charge of $6.40 for office expense yet he spent exactly two hours on the island. The total charge amounted to more than double that of any previous audit.

At the time of requesting the services of an auditor the audit department was advised of the daily boat service available. Previous auditors have used the boat service and found it satisfactory.

A check for the actual audit, plus travel expenses by boat was rendered but returned.

MARY CLEMENT BROWN,
Prop. 74-F-1f

Pen, Brush Vie with Rod in Gaspe
Quebec, P. Q. May 30, 1947—

Gaspe, for vacation purposes, seems to have everything. The high, rugged coastline and mineral-rich mountains give way to softly rolling farm lands. Little pebbled coves, biting deeply into the mainland, provide shelter for the fishing villages that nestle just beyond the tide's reach. The air of the Shick-shock Mountains is clear and heady as champagne, and everywhere there is friendliness and rich, warm color. Wildflowers with the exception of ragweed! riot in Gaspe meadows!

A good highway encircles the peninsula running through quaint villages which offer hospitality to the tourist. Here in houses of graceful Norman architecture, you will find for sale beautiful hooked rugs of original design; handloomed blankets and linens, frequently woven from home-grown wool and flax. Bring your kodak for there is much to photograph which is unique. Writers, artists and scientists are attracted by Gaspe. Painters and naturalists come to Perce to depict and to study the bird life of Bonaventure Island.

The larger resorts have all the amenities of the metropolitan hotel and facilities for golf and all the usual summer sports, plus surfing, bathing and fishing for sea-trout and the famous Gaspe salmon. Or, if you prefer to cast into a quiet pool, your chances of hooking a speckled trout are good.

Yes, Gaspe, for vacation purposes, seems to have everything—adv.

This And That

By K. S. F.

When I was a girl of ten my Father used to sing "O God our help in ages past, our hope for years to come, our shelter from the stormy blast, and our eternal home." Those words have never left my memory, tucked away for a time and then when occasion or thought leaps to succor they return in all the depth of meaning, their comfort and their assurance. Songs with meaning, hymns written by men of divine inspiration mean more to our success in life than we give them credit. I am most thankful for the early knowledge of the inspired hymns of religious gatherings.

Old-Fashioned Spider Corn Cake

One and one-fourth cups corn meal, 1 teaspoon soda, salt, 2 eggs well beaten, 2 cups sour milk, 1 teaspoon butter, 1 cup sweet milk.

Mix the cornmeal, soda, salt, eggs and sour milk. Pour into a sizzling hot iron skillet in which the butter is melted but not browned. Add gently the sweet milk. Bake one-half hour in a hot oven. When done, there will be a creamy layer in the middle.

Modern Nursery Rhymes

Little Blue Blue, come down your acorn:
The sheep are mutton, the cows forlorn!
Where's the little boy who looked after the sheep?
He's a bugler in the army and he wakes his pals from sleep.

Miss Mary, quite contrary,
How does your garden grow?
It's full of weeds and witchgrass,
For she's on the radio!

Little Bo Peep has lost her sheep,
And they cannot be found.
(They're resting in the butcher-shop
For fifty cents a pound!)

Jack and Jill went up the hill
To fetch a pail of water;
But when they arrived they found
It taxed—
They had to pay a quarter.
Old Mother Hubbard went to her cupboard
To get her poor dog a bone;
Someone had placed a bomb inside;
Mother Hubbard to bits was
"Joan!"

"Here is the church, but where art the people?"
"Oh, that was blown off, killing 200 people!"
This is the house that Jack built.
But, since the German "blitz"
That nice little house in Paris
Is occupied by Fritz.
Ana Clement, Guilford.

SERMONETTE

DREAMS

It is quite interesting in this little series designed to show the visions which early settlers held as they settled in Warren, South Thomaston, Thomaston and Rockland, as to the future of the territory then in the making.

Up to 1767 there had been few attempts to settle at Westport, but in that year Eliza Snow from Harpswell, looking for a site to commence lumbering operations, took measures for a settlement there. Then commenced names afterward to hold a large place in the county's growth. Combs, Keating, Orbelton, Rowell, Israel, Snow, Perce, Butler, McLean, Slover, Spaulding, Sweetland, Mathew, Dimer, et al.

The large forest of pine and varying kinds of timber stretched along the shores of Owl's Head Bay and extended inland into the Camden mountains. Historically, all those names were to become familiar to me as a boy.

Up to this time, Owl's Head Bay, or Rockland harbor, was used principally by the Indians who came down the Penobscot, paddled to the Head of the Bay, carried across the short distance to the Westport river, then a short portage to Cutler Cove, St. George, and on to Thomaston and Warren and Oyster River, avoiding rounding of Owl's Head.

Shortly two young men were to lead impulse to the growing sea trade. Knox, who did more to establish the United States than any one man with the exception of Washington, whose friend he was, and Rev. Isaac Cate, who was to lead the settlements in the pathways of God. Men of vision.

William A. Bennett.

THE NAME OF "FRIEND"

Significance Of It In Connection With Beans and Brown Bread.

The popular trio mentioned above is whooping it up with a series of advertising campaigns which are making the public sit up and take notice. Always a company to back up retailers with a strong and consistent program of advertising, Friend Brothers have gone all out on the current series, which should be reflected in the merry jingle of cash registers over all New England.

Coverage is intensive and thorough, with campaigns running in The Courier-Gazette and in 60 other papers throughout New England. The total circulation figures run well above three and one-half million and with the combination of large space and forceful, eye-catching advertisements the campaigns should result in an even greater increase in consumer demand for all these well-known Friend's products.

This is backing with a capital B, in line with the Friend Brothers policy of extending a helping hand to all retailers handling the famous Friend Brothers product.

Mr. Sheldon of West Hartford, Conn., Rises To Support Of Sidney Davis

West Hartford, Conn., May 27. Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—

Will you please consider the expression of an individual who is only a vacationist of Maine. Articles written in your paper and the court's decision given in the case of Sidney Davis, prompts this letter. Not being in possession of all the facts, this letter should not be interpreted as a challenge to your paper, the court, or interested parties.

Seven years ago, the writer met Mr. Davis, his family, and many other people in Port Clyde. During the early stages of the war, he was instrumental in hiring many residents of the town and developed many friends in the town. The writer has gone lobstering with Mr. Davis on several occasions. The writer has seen, on these occasions, every questionable lobster carefully measured. He has been present when Mr. Davis has weighed lobsters purchased from other lobstermen and has seen undersized lobsters picked out and put back in the sea.

Articles written in your paper have given the impression that the use of the Massachusetts gauge versus the Maine State gauge brought about a technical conviction of Mr. Davis. From articles also written in The Courier-Gazette one would believe that the Maine State gauge must be used by lobstermen licensed in the State of Maine. It appears that Mr. Davis did not violate the intent of the law. Acknowledging the technicality, it also appears that a political undercurrent must have existed to have prosecuted so severely a man of Mr. Davis' character.

R. Sheldon.

The Sugar Stamps

Household sugar shortage problems are being eased rapidly. The Agriculture Department came up with this good news for the housewife:

1. Spare stamp No. 12 in ration books may be used for 10 pounds of sugar immediately rather than on June 1 as previously announced.

2. A new rationing stamp good for 10 pounds will be validated not later than Aug. 1, and

3. If the sugar picture continues to improve the individual consumer can get more sugar than the 35 pounds previously allotted him for 1947.

The Department's action yesterday assures consumers the full 35 pounds of sugar promised under the 1947 Sugar Control Extension Act and makes it available by Aug. 1.

Spare stamp No. 53 good for five pounds expired March 31; spare stamp No. 11 was validated for 10 pounds and is good until Oct. 31; Spare Stamp No. 12 will expire Oct. 31.

Archelus J. Smalley

Death of Retired Fish Warden Who Had Served 33 Years

Funeral services for Archelus J. Smalley of Tenant's Harbor, who died in Rockland Monday, were held Wednesday afternoon at the Davis Funeral Home in Thomaston, Rev. Earle B. Hunt of Tenant's Harbor officiating. There was a large attendance.

Mr. Smalley was a retired fish warden, with 33 years of service to his credit.

The veteran warden was born in St. George, April 2, 1863, son of Archelus J. Smalley. His mother was Hannah Elwell.

He gained his look learning in the St. George schools, and supplemented it with a course in bookkeeping at the Rockland Commercial College.

He began his career as a school teacher, but four years of it at Wheeler's Bay convinced him that he had not found his vocation and he learned the printer's trade. He was in the business on his own hook for 25 years.

In spite of his busy days he found an opportunity to mix taxidermy into it, picking up that art by himself and later with Fred Rackliffe, who was a professional.

He joined the Sea and Shore Fisheries staff as warden, under Commissioner Woodbury of Portland. Succeeding wardens realized the value of his services and he continued on the staff under Wardens William E. Brennan, Harry L. Sanborn, Horatio D. Crie, Rodney E. Feyler and Arthur Greenleaf.

After the advent of Commissioner Reed when he was placed on the retired list.

Handicapped by a shooting accident which befell him at the age of 14, costing him one of his arms, "Arch" Smalley went about his work as though nothing had happened, accompanied the past 26 years by his nephew, Bernard R. Smalley, who is beginning to feel something of a veteran himself.

Arch Smalley's territory under Commissioner Crie was from Owl's Head to Medonak but at the time of his retirement it had been condensed to the territory between Clark Island and Georges River. His long service was interrupted by only one spell of sickness.

At the outset he was confronted by a body of hostile fishermen, who were selling 9-inch lobsters to out of State buyers and cullings by the wholesale to whoever would buy. At that time the wardens had no jurisdiction outside of the three-mile limit, but at the present time $5000 bond if they failed to come inside the three-mile limit when ordered to do so.

The fishermen became friendly and co-operative.
